

4-days Master-Course with HOWARD CHOY, B. ARCH

Workshop Eight House Methods & San He Pai Water Methods

15. - 18. March 2013, Vienna

AUTHENTIC FENG SHUI from a Chinese Master

In the first half of this workshop we will cover the theory and the practice of the advanced Bazhai (Eight House) systems including the four alternative systems and how to use two of them in practice. Namely the "Bazhai Minging" and "Yangzhai Sanyao", where the reference points for calculating the distribution of the 8 Wandering Stars are different. Participants should have completed some basic training in Eight House Methods.

The second half will be allocated to the study of the practice of all of the four major Water Methods in the San He School of Feng Shui, using the three 24 Mountains rings.

The San He School of Feng Shui puts the emphasis on where the water comes in and goes out to determine the auspicious and harmfulness (Ji-Xiong) of a site, using the 3 rings of the Earth, Heaven and Human plates of the 24 Mountains and the 12 Life Cycles.

A comprehensive set of notes and templates for the San He Luopan Compass will be provided free of charge. The Original Howard Choy Compass will be available for € 250.00 minus 10 % in class.

There will also be an on-site application with a real case study of a reasonable level of complexity, so the participants will gain a firsthand knowledge on how a working consultant would use these Methods in practice.

You are also welcome to bring in your own projects for a second opinion and we will use them as part of the teaching practices. Please inform the organizer beforehand with full documentation (e.g. Google Earth pictures, onsite pictures, floor plans and directional reading, etc.) for a speedy feedback.

Students from different schools are all welcome!

We look forward to a challenging and hands-on workshop in the comfortable atmosphere of a manageable group (max. 12 participants). You will receive a certificate issued by the European College of Feng Shui (ECOFs) Berlin. Instruction is in English with German translation. You will receive a detailed documentation on all topics, partly in English and partly in German.
